Great Similarity Between Methods
of Burglar at Don Casady's
Home Sunday Night

AND ONE AT HOLDEN HOUSE

In Each Case Window Blind Was
is Stolen From a Purse.

The home of Don Cassady, 830 North Jackson street, was entered last night and Mr. Casady's trousers containing $17 in money taken. The method used in robbing the Cassady home was similar to that used a few weeks ago at the home of Allen R. Holden. The robber took a rocking chair from the front porch and standing on this opened a window in the kitchen.

Instead of rolling the window blind and taking a chance of awakening the family the robber carefully folded the blind and then pinned it. This was the plan followed by the robber who entered the Holden home.

Burnt matches were found scattered all over the house. The burglar quietly crept up stairs and took the trousers from a chair. The robbery was not discovered until this morning when the family came down stairs. An odd coat was also taken.

The money was in a pocketbook. The pocketbook contained about $99 in valuable papers and these with the pocketbook were found in the alley south of the house.

An attempt was also made to enter the home of Dan Matlock, directly south of the Casady home. At the Matlock home the robber found all the windows locked and failed to gain an entrance.

EFFORT TO BREAK UP SOCIAL COSTS

Gordon Hines And Harry Tilley
Fined $28.50 Each And Three Others Are Under Arrest.

SOME TROUBLE AT NEW SALEM

Alleged That Youths Were Jealous
Because They Had no Invitations—Nine Affidavits

Trying to break up a school social at New Salem because they were not invited proved costly for Gordon Hines, colored, and Harry Tilley of near New Salem. They pleaded guilty before Squire Kratzer to charges of carrying concealed weapons and disturbing a public meeting. Their fines totaled $28.50 each. Both were fined one dollar and costs for carrying concealed weapons and five dollars on the other charge.

A total of nine affidavits against five young men was the outgrowth of the trouble at New Salem. Others involved in the trouble are Garrett Ricketts, Harry Beaver and Stanley Stewart. Two charges similar to the ones filed against Hines and Tilley, were placed against these boys, with the exception of Stewart, and the only one filed against him, that of disturbing the meeting.

It was alleged that about a week ago a school social was held at New Salem and that invitations were sent out. The young men involved failed to receive any and, it is claimed, went to the school building where they created the disturbance.

The charges against all of them were filed by William Grosse, a teacher in the New Salem schools. It is stated that the boys used profane language and made so much noise that the social was badly disturbed.

The Stewart boy will be given a hearing on November 11 at two o'clock in the afternoon, and the cases against Beaver are set for trial November 13. Ricketts is said to be ill and the date for his trial has not been set. The arrests were made by Deputy Sheriff Sullivan.

Concerning Accident Which
Befell Robert Kennedy

IS IN LOS ANGELES HOSPITAL

All that is known concerning the accident which befell Robert Kennedy, age sixty-seven years, a retired farmer of this city, is contained in a brief dispatch from Los Angeles, California printed in the Indianapolis Star this morning.

The dispatch states that he became confused by a speeding automobile as he was about to step from a street car at Fourth and Figueroa, Los Angeles, Saturday night, missed his footing and plunged to the pavement. He sustained a slight fracture of the skull and other injuries. The dispatch stated that doctors at the hospital said he might recover.

It is thought his condition is critical else some word would have been sent here. Mrs. Kennedy has a sister, Mrs. Ed Newby, living near Orange. His two sons, Jesse, of Indianapolis, and Clyde, who is out west, formerly lived here. Mr. Kennedy lives at the corner of Jackson and Tenth streets.

THREE ADDITIONS THE FIRST NIGHT

Rev. J. H. O. Smith, Who Opens Revival Here, Extends Invitation
at the Second Service.

CHURCH CROWDED AT NIGHT

To Say it Makes no Difference What
We Believe if Our Lives Are Right is Foolish, He Says.

The revival services opened auspiciously at the Main Street Christian church Sunday. The main auditorium and the Sunday school room of the church were packed with people and when the invitation was extended, three persons responded.

The meeting tonight promises to be of unusual interest. The song service will begin promptly at seven-thirty o'clock.

The Rev. J. H. O. Smith, who is conducting the revival, preached on the topic, "Christ's Way of Winning Men." Sunday night, The Rev. H. H. Saunders, the singing evangelist, conducted a novel song service last night and also sang two solos.

The first service of the revival was held Sunday morning and a good-sized crowd was present. Dr. Smith spoke from the text, James 5: 19-20, "Brethren if any of you do err from the truth and one convert him let him know that he who converts a sinner from the error of his way shall have a soul from death and hide a multitude of sins."

Sunday night the Rev. Mr. Smith said in part:

"When a reformer comes to town we ask him four questions. What do you propose to do? What means do you propose to employ? How can these means work out the result? Upon what power do you rely? Christ came to save the lost. His method was love. His life demonstrated how love could reach and save men, and the power was the power of God.

"Pharisees never win anybody. They pray to themselves, admire themselves and have hypnotized themselves into believing that they are better than others. Around these hypocrites the lack of Christ's investive hissed and writhed but for the poor sinner his gracious words were invitation and hope. Sin and sorrow go hand in hand. They are found together as cause and effect. They walk through the world together and Christ came to bind up earth's broken hearts.

"The church is always discussing how to reach the masses. Who put any distance between the followers of Christ and the men he came to save? Go to them. If a sinner should get into some church he could be arrested for assault and battery. We need the old time religion which makes us love everybody."

Speaking at the morning service the evangelist said in part:

"We are here this morning because Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again, because He gave the great commission under which we preach and whose condition we accept, because our savior ascended to Heaven, because the Holy Spirit came, the Gospel was preached, the Bible was written and because we desire to see men saved from sin, and to serve God and fellowmen.

"Erring from the truth and soul death are joined in this text as cause the effect. To say that it does not make any difference what we believe if our lives are right is like it does not make any difference what disease you have so you are in good health.

TELLS WHY HE IS A CATHOLIC

Rev. Bertrand Conway Closes Series
of Lectures Here With Two Delivered Sunday.

TALKS ON PRAYER IN MORNING

On Saturday Night Father Conway
Gives Catholic Doctrine Concerning Divorce Question.

The Rev. Bertrand Conway, Paulist priest, closed a series of lectures at the St. Mary's church here with two on Sunday. In the morning he spoke on the topic "Prayer," and in the evening he told why he is a Catholic. On Saturday evening he discussed the divorce question and explained the Catholic doctrines respecting it.

"I am a Catholic because the Catholic church guarantees to me with a divine infallible certainty that answers to my soul most ardent longing—the union with God through Jesus Christ, God's only son in a society of God, founded in a love made perfect by the presence of God within me," declared Father Conway last night.

He said he was a Catholic because: the Catholic church always protested against indifferentism and unbelief; his Christianity is built upon that foundation dogma that Jesus Christ is perfect man and perfect God in one divine personality; he rejects the teachings of the average non-Catholic Christian; he does not build upon a dead book which can not answer when it is cross-examined; "my church, by its claim of infallibility, is the only church that professes to represent the infallible Jesus, which others logically declare they are but fallible voices that may lead men astray with regard to Christ's doctrine and worship;" his church is the one divine society ruled by St. Peter and his successor, the bishop of Rome, appointed by Christ to keep His church one in her infallible witness to His gospel; his church knows no modern origin in Germany, England, Switzerland, or America, no modern founder like Luther, Henry the Eighth, Zwingli, Calvin and the like—no modern doctrines like justification by faith alone, private interpretation of the Bible, etc.

Speaking on "Prayer" yesterday morning Father Conway said:

"Is not prayer asking God to change the laws of nature He Himself established?"

"St. Thomas Aquinas thus answers this difficulty ('Summa,' 2a 2ae, q83, a2.) In proclaiming the utility of prayer, we are not to be understood as putting any restraint on human acts subject to Divine Providence nor are we supposing any change in the ordinances of God. Divine Providence has determined in advance, not only the effects which are to be produced but also their order and the causes which are to produce them. Among these causes are included human acts. Man, therefore, must do something, not indeed to change by his acts the arrangement of God, but to concur in producing certain effects in accordance with the divine dispensation. Just as it is with regard to Physical causes, so it is too with regard to prayer. The aim of prayer is not to alter the designs of God, but to ask that we may obtain what God has determined to grant us by our prayers." (Card. Gibbons, "Our Christian Heritage," ch ix.; American Cath. Quarterly, 1896, p. 491.)

"Does not prayer encourage laziness and make people neglect doing

ARE RESENTFUL AT TONE OF NOTE

British People Are Outspoken in Criticism of United States'
Trade Protest

NEWSPAPERS MORE CAUTIOUS

Popular View Seems to be That President Had "Hyphenated
Vote" in View

TOO MILD, GERMAN VIEW

(By United Press.)
Berlin, Nov. 8.—"Too mild and too late" was the general tenor of the criticism today of the American note to England concerning British interference with American trade at sea.

(By United Press.)

London, Nov. 8.—England is very resentful of the tone of President Wilson's note concerning the English interference with American trade.

Comment by the "Man in the Street" today is far more outspoken to this effect than were newspapers. The latter, while vigorously defending the blockade and deploring what they term "the harsh wording" of the communication are careful to explain that no serious trouble is to be expected between the two countries and expressed being hurt rather than angry at the American chief's attitude. Individual utterances, however, are very bitter.

The popular view seems to be that the president had the "hyphenated vote" clearly in mind in what he said that he put American profit much higher than vital British necessities and that the most resolute answer ought to be returned to the effect that England does not propose to be hampered in its life and death struggle by consideration for American over-sea trade.

WILL NOT SUPPORT WILSON'S PROGRAM

Rep. Kitchen, House Floor Leader,
After Conference With President
Makes Statement.

SAID HE HAD TO BE SHOWN

Washington, Nov. 8.—Representative Kitchen, house floor leader, said after an hour's talk with President Wilson, this afternoon, that he would not support the administration's war preparedness program. When he entered the White House he said "I am going to be shown." When he came out he said, "I had a very pleasant conversation with the president and all I can say is that I regret very much not to be able to support his program."

Kitchen did not attempt to make an acrimonious statement upon the defense program. He said he would merely say on the floor of the house why he could not stand by the president.

"I think I can say that I will be in the minority," said Representative Kitchen.

INFANT CHILD IS DEAD.

The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock at the residence and will be private. Friends are invited. Burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

IT SEEMS TO BE ENGLAND'S MOVE

Administration Considers Measures
to Enforce Demands Made on the British.

ACTION NOT WORDS WANTED

No Reply Expected For Some Weeks
Because of Legal and Technical Points Raised.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—It is England's next move. The administration today considered measures to enforce the demands made in this government's last note protesting against British interference with American trade.

Action instead of words is expected from England as a proper reply to the note.

It probably will be some weeks before a reply can come from England. Because of the length of the American note and because of the legal and technical points raised, it will be impossible for the British foreign office to reply immediately.

A brief survey of the note of protest shows the following points stand out in bold relief:

The so-called blockade instituted by the allies against enemy countries is ineffective, illegal and indefensible.

The United States insists its relations with the British government be governed, not by a policy of expediency, but by those established rules of international conduct to which Great Britain in the past has held the United States to account when the latter was a belligerent, engaged in a struggle for national existence.

The United States unhesitatingly assume the task of championing the integrity of neutral rights, and will devote its energies to the task, exercising always an impartial attitude.

The United States can not submit to a curtailment of its neutral rights by these measures, which are admittedly retaliatory and therefore illegal in conception and in nature, and intended to punish the enemies of Great Britain for alleged irregularities on their part.

It (the United States) can not with complacency suffer further subordination of its rights and interests to the plea that the exceptional geographic position of the enemies of Great Britain requires or justifies oppressive and illegal practices.

It is of the highest importance for neutrals, not only of the present day, but of the future, that the principles of international right be maintained unimpaired.

QUOTES BIBLE TO SHOW ATTITUDE

President Wilson Cites Verses From Ezekiel to Explain Position on Preparedness.

IS EXPLAINED IN A LETTER

(By United Press.) Washington, Nov. 8.—In a letter to Seth Low of New York, made public today, President Wilson stated that his attitude on national defense will be in brief the Biblical quotation from the second, third, fourth fifth and sixth verses of the thirty-third chapter of Ezekiel. These verses read as follows:

"Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, when I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; if, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his own blood shall be upon his own head. He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul.

"But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, and the sword come, and they take my person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand."

USE ROAD DRAG IS ADVICE GIVEN

Specialists of Department of Agriculture Says it Prevents Damage From Freezing

WINTER CARE OF HIGHWAYS

Keep Ditches And Drains Open so Water Will Not Stand on Surface, it is Stated

Water, not cold, is the cause of the deterioration of roads in winter, according to a road specialist of the United States department of agriculture at Washington.

Cold weather does not in itself injure roads, no matter whether they are earth, gravel or macadam. In fact, an earth road will stand more traffic when it is solidly frozen than at any other time. Excess water, however, is always detrimental to a highway. When cold weather turns this water into ice, the damage that it does is greatly increased. Ice occupies considerably more space than the water from which it is formed, and every person who has lived in a cold climate is familiar with the powerful bursting effect of water when left to freeze in a confined vessel. The same action takes place when a wet road freezes to any considerable depth. It simply bursts, or, as we generally term it in road parlance, the road heaves. Later, when the frost leaves, the road is disintegrated and ruts badly. If this process is repeated a number of times during the winter, a gravel or macadam road may be practically destroyed, while an earth road may become entirely impassable.

A dry road will not heave. Rock, gravel, sand, and even clay when perfectly dry contract slightly on freezing. In order to expand on freezing, these materials must contain or be mixed with water, and the more water they contain the greater the expansion which takes place. But so long as the road remains frozen the damage does not become apparent. Hence the frequent and erroneous idea that it is the thaw which injures the road. The injury was done when the water in the road and the particles of the road surface—broken stone, sand, or still finer particles of earth or clay—were pushed apart by the expanding power of the freezing water. The thaw merely allows the ice to melt and assume its original volume as water.

The remedy is self-evident. Keep the water out of the road. The time to begin preventive measures is early in the fall, before the rains begin. If the road goes into the winter thoroughly dry, with the surface and drainage in good condition, the changes are extremely favorable that it will come out all right the following spring.

Keep the ditches and drains open. Remove all accumulations of weeds, grass, etc., which tend to retain moisture and obstruct drainage. Furthermore, do this work early, while the ground is still dry and hard. Vegetation and litter hold water like a sponge and allow it gradually to soak in and soften the earth. The job before the road man is to keep the hard, dry surface formed in the summer time from becoming softened by the fall and winter rains and snows. When the fall rains begin the earth or gravel road should be dragged frequently to prevent the formation of ruts and the collection of water. All raveled places on macadam surfaces should be carefully filled in and consolidated.

and side ditches should be opened up as far as possible so as to prevent water collecting along the roadway. If the thaw is so pronounced that the roadway is softened, the drag should be used; sometimes one round trip of the drag, with the hitched reversed, will entirely rid the earth road of slush and melting snow and leave the road surface practically dry. Don't get the idea that the drag is not needed on your earth and gravel roads in the winter time. Instead, keep it where you can get at it readily, for if the winter is an ordinary one you will need it many times.

Winter destruction begins in the early fall. The best way to prevent such destruction is to forestall it. Keep the road dry and remember that so long as it remains so it will not be seriously injured by frost. Keep the drains open, the ditches clear, remove all vegetation and litter, and use the drag frequently. If the road is kept dry to a depth of 2 feet below the surface there will be little trouble from the coldest winter.

Opening a Nation's Eye

America, like the newly born kitten, has been sleeping these many years with eyes closed and the possibilities of the future an impenetrable blank.

But today the national eye is beginning to open and the light of reason is sinking in.

The president, admits that the overturning of the old world by the sword and the shell, and the lust for blood and conquest which permeates nearly every nation of the earth, has placed the United States in the most precarious position of its history.

The president wants the American people to prepare to defend themselves against the invader when he appears. That is, Mr. Wilson would have a large number of citizens throughout the country enlisted in an army reserve, fully equipped, ready to take the field following the forces of the regular army and the national guard.

We all love peace and want peace but we fear that in the present temper of the world the only positive guarantee of peace is to possess the means of thrashing the other fellow.

Let us have a great army of citizen-reserves men who are willing to acquire some knowledge of the duties of a soldier before they are called upon to perform those duties in the face of an enemy.

The safety of our country today depends upon the strong arm of its citizenship—upon you, and upon us, and others of our class.

The national eye has been opened, with the result that we will have safety without the curse of aggressive militarism.

Dollars And Ducks

It is well for young men to know that dollars are like ducks—one follows another—and though they may waddle along slowly and with some effort, they will eventually get there.

We have young men in this town who are just starting out on the road of life, but where that road will lead is for them to say.

They are earning a few dollars now and as time progresses their earning capacity will increase. If the early accumulations are thrown to the birds it is more than likely that in later life the buzzards will roost on the graves of their ambition.

But if their first dollars are carefully laid away in a well sewed pocket, and this lesson of thrift and frugality is fostered and encouraged then in time the bank will become the depository of their earnings and accumulations and eventual wealth, and the eagle will soar over the heads of successful men.

Those who waste today will squander tomorrow, and tomorrow is the agent of the devil and the prime minister of hell.

Keep an eye on the young men, but keep both eyes on those who spend wisely but not foolishly, who are full of life and ginger but never carry it to excess, whose eyes are fixed upon the eagle and not upon the buzzard.

Like the waddling duck, they may advance slowly, but they will get there in time.

Secretary Redfield regards himself as having partially squared his account with Mayor Thompson of Chicago. During the investigation into the Eastland catastrophe Mayor Thompson asked President Wilson to recall Secretary Redfield. Since that time inspectors of the department of commerce have discovered that the city of Chicago was operating a makeshift motor boat in violation of the navigation laws and ordered a fine of $200 for the defense. The city, at the Mayor's suggestion asked to have the fine remitted; and the Secretary, with much glee, refused the request. This is pretty small business for a Cabinet officer. But Redfield is pretty small potatoes anyway.

War is a blessing to mankind, asserts Rev. Dr. Eaton, a Baptist pastor, while Dr. Jacobi the dean of the American medical profession, declares that the war will cast a blight upon the race for fifty years. The one sees through the war a curb upon the use of intoxicating liquors and the other sees loss of virility, physique and possibly mentality.

The wise man not only looks out for self, but views matters pertaining to himself from every angle. If to save a penny in one way leads to the loss of a dollar in some other way, then he hangs on to the dollar and lets the penny go. It is so in the purchase of merchandise. You can not discriminate against home institutions and still expect those institutions to thrive and increase the value of your own property. Such a course can result in but one way—in disaster for the community and for yourself.

Wilhelm is still kaiser, George is still king, and the war is still hell.

Bragging it always excusable when you brag of your home town.

Our own little dove of peace appears to be perking up of late.

Grow up with your town and help the town to grow with you.

When the war is over let us hope it will be over.

Eat, drink and be merry—but be merry anyway.

A good wife is three-fourths of any man.

Thanking Him For Kicks.

(Portland Oregonian.)

Carranza has insolently and consistently refused to recognize the United States; therefore the United States will insist upon recognizing him. To a result so humiliating and pitiful has come the Mexican policy of President Wilson.

It is the latest, but not the final, development of watchful waiting. For if Carranza, boastful, unscrupulous, garrulous and cowardly, shall set up a Carranza government at Mexico City, it cannot last, for Carranza has little ability and small prestige, and he will speedily pass on to join Diaz, Huerta and Madero, unless there shall be something more than moral support from the United States. There will not be, of course, so long as President Wilson continues under the hypnotic spell of his own power to make fine phrases as substitute for effective action.

Mexico is our Belgium and we let its people suffer and starve, while we talk glibly about their right of self-government.

Mexico is our Armenia and we permit its outlaw chiefs to pillage, rob, devastate, murder and ravish, while we rage at the Turks for their atrocities against a subject Christian race. But we do nothing for Mexico, though we fill our ships and send them to Belgium, and recruit our missionaries and dispatch them to Armenia.

HOOSIER HISTORY

MORTON IN 1860

Having headed the state ticket of the new party in 1856, Morton and his friends expected that he would again be nominated for Governor in 1860. Prospects for success were bright and Morton's arduous, faithful labors entitled him to reward. But Republican leaders picked Henry S. Lane, a former Whig as their standard bearer, considering him more "available." To Morton was given the nomination for the second post, that of Lieut. Gov. Though disappointed, he accepted, out of loyalty to his party. Had he refused he would not now be known as the great War Governor.

Mayor Dismisses Three Charges Against Lew Story Today.

Deciding that it was about fifty-fifty between Lew Story and Stanley Kemp, Mayor Behout acquitted Story on three charges this morning in police court. Story was charged with provoke, carrying concealed weapons and with profanity. Kemp was the prosecuting witness, having filed all three of the charges against Story. The trouble occurred during horse show week. The mayor held that the state did not have sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction and found Story not guilty. All three of the cases were tried this morning.

SEES BRIGHT FUTURE FOR UNITED STATES

James E. Watson Tells Jovians we Need to Rehabilitate Our Merchant Marine.

HAVE MEN, MONEY, GENIUS

"We need to rehabilitate our merchant marine; we should have the carrying trade of the world, situated as we are between the two imperial oceans of the world," James E. Watson said Saturday in speaking at the noon luncheon of the Jovian League at the Hotel Severin, says the Indianapolis Sunday Star. He also asserted that the future prospects of the nation never were brighter than at present. He called attention to the crops in this country, and the money in the banks. The fact that the commercial competitors of the United States are at war and unable to do anything toward building up their trade is an opportunity for manufacturers of this country to increase sales, according to Mr. Watson. "We have the men, the money, the genius, the enterprise and the opportunity, and all we need to do is to enter and take possession; this means improved railroad facilities, and the establishment of branch banks to facilitate exchange," he said. About forty Jovians attended the luncheon.

SIX INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED

Hinder Shipment of Munitions
Placed Under Arrest.

CONSPIRACY IS ALLEGED

(By United Press.)
New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The Federal grand jury today returned indictments against six of the alleged conspirators in the plot to blow up vessels carrying munitions of war to the allies. Among those indicted were:

Robert Fay, self-styled German army officer, who told secret service men he was sent here to hinder the shipment of war munitions to the allies by the German government.

Max Bretung, of whom little is known.

Walter Scholtz, brother-in-law of Fay, who was arrested with Fay near Weehauken, N. J., while testing explosives.

Edward Bronkhurst, a mining engineer who is an alleged partner of Fay, who was to place the explosive under the rudder of the ship to be blown up.

ONLY SMALL SUM REMAINS UNPAID

City Will Profit on $430 at Ten Per Cent as Result of Failures
Under Barret Law.

HAVE UNTIL DECEMBER 1

Collections for improvements under the Barret law were very good, according to City Treasurer Stech. Something like $80 remains unpaid for street improvements and a total of $350 remains unpaid on the sewer improvements. The property owners have until December 1 to pay these Barret law assessments, plus the ten per cent penalty. It is compulsory under the law to add the ten per cent for collection after November 1.

Under the law if these assessments and the ten per cent additional are not paid by December 1 they are to be certified over to the auditor and placed on the tax duplicate as delinquent. The property against which the assessment is levied is then sold at a delinquent tax sale the same as all other delinquent property.

MEMORY SUDDENLY FAILS SWANNIGAN

Man in Police Court Said he Could
Not Remember Name of
"Bootlegger."

IS HELD ON TWO CHARGES

Tom Swannigan's memory suddenly "went to the bad" this morning in police court. After telling Mayor Bebout that he bought a pint of whiskey from a "bootlegger," he could not remember the man's name. He was arraigned for public intoxication and when asked where he obtained the "booze" stated that he paid a "bootlegger" fifty cents for a pint of whiskey. This was all he could remember and refused to give the name of the man who sold him the whiskey.

A charge of assault and battery was also placed against Swannigan. He is alleged to have beat upon his wife Saturday afternoon. He pleaded not guilty to this charge and sentence on the intoxication charge was withheld until the assault case was tried.

Louis Laughlin also pleaded guilty to an intoxication charge and was fined one dollar and costs. He went back to jail for eleven days.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast
if your Back hurts or Bladder
bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

ernment to prove an increase rather than a decrease in American trade fail to take into account the increased price of commodities resulting from the war or to make any allowance for the diminution in the volume of trade which the neutral countries of Europe previously had with the nations of war.

Detention of neutral vessels has not been based on proofs * * * but for search for evidence to support the belief of—in many cases a bare suspicion of—enemy destination.

The assertion that the position of the United States in relation to search at sea is inconsistent with its practices during the civil war is based on a misconception, as proved by the records.

United States naval experts have shown by a recent report that modern vessels have facilities for boarding and inspection that make their search for contraband possible without removal to a belligerent port.

The United States maintains the right to sell goods into the general stock of a neutral country and denounces as illegal and unjustifiable any attempt of a belligerent to interfere with that right on the ground that it suspects that the previous supply of such goods in the neutral country, which the exports renew or replace, has been sold to an enemy.

The United States has no course other than to contest seizures of vessels at sea upon conjectural suspicion.

Local Team Starts Scoring in the Last Half and Run up Total
of Thirty Points.

HELD FIRST TWO QUARTERS

The Rushville football team added another victory to its long string yesterday when the Cambridge City aggregation fell a victim to the attack of the locals. The final score was 30 to 0. It should have been more but the Rushville offensive did not get to working until the last half of the game.

Most of the play in the first half was in Cambridge City territory but Rushville could not score. A drop kick failed in the first quarter and in the second quarter after working the ball to within the ten yard line the locals failed to count, when a series of line bucks failed and few penalties helped Cambridge City.

In the third quarter Rushville started out to show some class. Bierk recovered the ball on the kick off and Rushville then marched down the field for a touch down. Two touchdowns and in each case a goal were made in this quarter. In the fourth quarter Rushville was not to be denied and continued the work started in the third quarter. Two touchdowns and a touchback were registered in this session, bringing the total up to 30 points. Bierk, a new man in the line added much strength to the Rushville team and

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Chicago, Philadelphia And Frisco After G. O. P. National Convention Next Year

Southern Delegation Has Been Decreased Ninety Members— Total Now is 988

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—The regular machinery which will pick and groom the next Republican and Democratic candidates for president will be started up in December.

With the meetings here of the National committees at that time, the dates and places of meeting of the Democratic and Republican conventions will be decided upon. From then on, committee headquarters here will be busily watching booms, primaries, delegations and the other details of the program of picking the president.

Chicago, Philadelphia, and San Francisco are bidding for the republican convention. The seaboard cities find Chicago's central location is the chief thing they have to combat and each is going about offsetting this in her own way. The convention will be held the latter part of June.

Dallas, St. Louis, Chicago, Buffalo and Omaha are contenders for the democratic convention.

Responding to a demand following the last Republican convention, there has been a cut of ninety delegates, largely among the southern delegations, which represented districts in which there is little republican strength. The number cut off is as follows: Alabama, 8; Arkansas, 3; Florida, 4; Georgia, 12; Louisiana, 8; Mississippi, 8; New York, 2; North Carolina, 3; South Carolina, 7; Tennessee, 2; Texas, 14; Virginia, 9. It has been ruled that the Hawaiian, Philippine and Porto Rican delegates, numbering ten, cannot vote, and they are included in the ninety.

This brings the number of Republican delegates down to 988. The Democratic delegation number 1,088.

In nineteen states, the delegations are now chosen by primaries, and these are looked forward to with keen interest as showing the desires of the country in the matter of candidates. The primaries will be held as follows:

Indiana, March 7, Minnesota, March 14; New Hampshire, March 14; North Dakota, March 21; Michigan, April 3; Wisconsin, New York, Illinois, April 4; Iowa, April 10; Nebraska, Oregon, April 18; Massachusetts, April 25; Maryland, May 1; California, Ohio, May 9; Pennsylvania, May 16; New Jersey, May 23; South Dakota, West Virginia, June 6.

In Alabama, there is a primary bill pending in the legislature and in Vermont the primary bill passed will be voted upon at a referendum this winter. Of the 988 republican delegates, 582 or considerably over half are named in this way, and slightly over half of the democratic delegates. The remainder are chosen in caucuses.

The action to be taken by the Progressive party is expected to be made known by Committee Chairman Victor Murdock at Wichita, Kansas, in a few weeks.

VOTE FOR WILSON IS PATRIOTISM

NATION'S FATE IN HIS HANDS

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—That Woodrow Wilson is the Democratic party, and that he is Congress, and that he is the State Department and all the rest of the Cabinet has been well known for some time.

But that he claims to be virtually the whole Nation also was not known until he disclosed it in his speech to the D. A. R. at their silver jubilee.

The propriety of using the occasion for making a speech such as the President's was, has been seriously questioned by many of the ladies who heard him; but it is among politicians that the speech created the most widespread interest. With one accord they recognize that the President was sounding a campaign slogan, and there is a serious division of opinion regarding the probable result.

In effect, the President declared that he wants an immediate line-up on the question, "Is America first or is it not?" He voiced his opinion that in all "political agitations of the years which are immediately at hand," it will be necessary for every man to make his position known.

Now it is evident that the only "line-up" and the only "political agitations" which are "immediately at hand" are the "line-up" and the "agitations" which will develop from the President's campaign for re-election. Mr. Wilson is held to be trying to make it appear that the only way to demonstrate patriotism in that connection is by voting for him.

Never, within recollection here, has a president gone so far in seeking to identify his own personality and his own political fortunes with the fate of the Nation. Washington is thoroughly familiar with the type of mind which life in the White House tends to develop. We know perfectly well how the isolation of the Executive Mansion, with no one seeing the President whom he does not wish to see and with no one telling him anything except what he wants to hear—we know perfectly well how this sort of a life breeds the idea in a President's mind that he is a sort of superman, that his opinions are always correct, that his actions are always wise and just, that he is, in short, infallible. Even the judicial Taft was not always immune to the microbe of such an idea—and Washington well remembers when the White House echoed with rhapsodies on the superiority of "my policies" as developed by "a man of my type."

Washington can remember many a President who has believed that his fellow-citizens who did not vote for him were misguided, or short-sighted, or unjust. But Washington cannot recall a President who has believed that his political opponents were unpatriotic or un-American.

Yet Washington interprets Mr. Wilson's speech to the D. A. R. as meaning nothing short of this; and Washington believes that the President has thereby raised an issue which will pursue him to a fatal political end.

The President even now has no clear-cut majority mandate from the people of the United States. Only forty-two per cent of the electorate of the United States. Only forty-two per cent of the electorate voted for him in 1912; and the indications are that no more will vote for him in 1916; while the divided opposition which blessed his fortunes three years ago is no longer in existence.

Yet the President is trying to assert that he embodies all of the patriotism and all of the spirit of nationality which the country possesses, and that whoever does not give him complete political support is traitorous and un-American. This is the foreign doctrine of lese-majeste' transplanted to America. There are speedy evidences that this exotic plant will be blasted in the hot indignation of the millions of Americans who did not vote for Wilson before, who do not propose to vote for him next year, and who know that they are just as patriotic as he is—if not more so.

BRONCHITIS. BRONCHIAL ASTHMA AND SEVERE COUGHS PROMPTLY RELIEVED

With Best Home-Made Medicine— 128 Teaspoonfuls—50 Cents.

One of the most dangerous things to neglect is a Cold or Severe Cough. If treatment is commenced promptly with the proper remedy, both are easily cured, but if neglected they oft-times develop into Pneumonia or Consumption, or some Chronic Bronchial affection. Most persons neglect treating themselves for the principal reason that they either don't think it serious enough to go to a doctor; thinking it will get well itself without treatment or don't know what good medicine to buy at a drug store, and if something more serious doesn't develop, it becomes deep seated through this neglect and hangs on the whole winter, when it might have otherwise been speedily cured, had Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant been used promptly.

No risk whatever is run in buying this remedy as Fox Bros.' Drug Store will refund your money if it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found to be the very best remedy you have ever used for stubborn Coughs, Colds, Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough and Hoarseness.

This new remedy is altogether different from any other kind, and is so strongly concentrated that two ounces (50c. worth), make a full pint, 128 teaspoonful of excellent cough medicine, by simply mixing it at home with one pint of granulated sugar and one half pint of water. It makes a whole family supply, while bottles of the old-fashioned, ordinary, ready-made kinds, of doubtful merit and without a guarantee usually only hold 20 to 32 teaspoonfuls. It is prepared from strictly harmless plants and is so pleasant that children like to take it and it can be given them with perfect safety as it positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. All druggists of this city sell it under the same "Money-Back" guarantee as the famous Asthmador. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor, St. Paul, Minn.

ARE NOT STRONG FOR NEW UNION

Indianapolis Suffragists Will Likely

Give Chicago Organizers a Cold Reception

ARE COMING IN AUTOMOBILES

Cavalcade of Congressional Union is Enroute From San Francisco to Washington

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Prospects were for a typical November reception for the automobile cavalcade of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage when it arrives here today.

The cavalcade is enroute from San Francisco to Washington, carrying hundreds of thousands of suffrage petitions. It plans to call upon several Indiana congressmen before leaving the state and sound them on the suffrage issue.

Whatever greetings the cavalcade gets here probably will be extemporaneous. If attempts made to organize a local reception committee have succeeded, it is not known.

Mrs. Meredith Nicholson is a member of the Congressional Union, and the Union organizers wrote her, asking that she organize a welcome. But Mrs. Nicholson also is a member of the Woman's Franchise League—and she wrote back to the Chicago organizers that she would not be in Indianapolis today.

Another announced plan was for Governor Ralston to welcome the cavalcade from the steps of the Statehouse. But Gov. Ralston is in Ohio today, and at the Governor's office nothing was known of a welcome to be performed.

A woman connected with the Woman's Franchise league in an official capacity explained today that the methods of the two suffrage organizations differ. "The Union leaders obtained their training in England and are more militant," she said. "Then they differ in other ways. For example, they have been attacking the Democratic party in the west, while we avoid party lines. They first announced that they did not believe in organization, but seeing that without organization they would fail, they are now entering various states where we are organized and are trying to disrupt our organization."

No one was found who would say that the chilly reception promised the cavalcade is due to activities of the Woman's Franchise League.

LARGE SUM FOR FARM EXTENSION

In This State Alone $182,362 is Available to be Spent by the Federal Government.

TOTAL FOR U. S. $4,782,270

Funds Made Up of Appropriations Under Smith-Lever Agricultural Measure.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The department of agriculture today made public the complete allotment of funds available for agricultural extension work in Indiana during the fiscal year 1915-16. This includes total funds from all sources—federal, state and local. The federal funds are made up of appropriations under the Smith-Lever agricultural extension act, appropriations for farmers' co-operative demonstration work and appropriations through other bureaus in the department of agriculture.

In the final and complete allotment of funds the state ranks near the top in respect to amount received. Only four other states will have more funds available for this work. The total Indiana allotment is $182,362. The four states that will have more money for agricultural extension at their disposal are Iowa, $229,878; New York, 219,791; North Carolina, $192,154; Texas, $234,534. Illinois, which is pre-eminent an agricultural state, trails Indiana, its total allotment being $149,539. Ohio, with only $117,279, is far behind Indiana.

The specific purposes for which the Indiana agricultural extension funds are allotted are as follows: Administration, $6,291; publications, $1,000; county agents, $110,571; home demonstration, $4,200; movable schools, $10,700; boys' club work, $15,400; live stock, $4,750; poultry, $2,500; dairying, $7,750; agronomy, $5,700; horticulture, $4,800; plant diseases and insects, $2,500; farm management, $5,000; other purposes, $1,200.

The total amount raised for agricultural extension in the United States during the present fiscal year is $4,782,270, of which $2,115,000 is to come from federal sources and the remainder is to be made up by the states and localities to be benefited. In the country at large more than one-half the total co-operative agricultural extension funds is to be used to carry on county agent activities. The next item of importance, so far as the distribution of funds is concerned, is the home economic or home demonstration work for farm girls and women. To this has been assigned more than $542,000.

STRIKE CASE HEARD TODAY

Injunction Suit Involving Fort

Wayne Car Company and Old Employees up in Federal Court

UNION STARTED A BOYCOTT

Union Labor is Not Used Now and Company Fears Further Trouble

—Jitneys Cut in.

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—Mayor William C. Hosey and the city of Fort Wayne together with leaders in Fort Wayne unions and fifty-eight former employees of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company were defendants today in Federal court in injunction proceedings brought by the bondholders of the company. A temporary injunction is asked preventing opposition to the traction company. The whole affair is an outgrowth of street car strike called in Fort Wayne six weeks ago.

Although the traction company asserts that the strike is practically won by the company, in that cars are working with new employees the attempt here today is to prevent disorders said to result from the activities of the strikers and their sympathizers.

Unionized labor in Fort Wayne totals more than 8,000 according to the complaint of the traction company, and this, it is alleged, has united against the company with the result that the receipts have been seriously reduced.

The complaint gives the cause of the strike that leaders of the men asked the company to conduct a "closed" shop and also to break its existing agreement with the employees. Charges that the present employees of the company have been assaulted; that rocks and other missiles have been hurled against the company's property and that the citizens of Fort Wayne have been terrorized by former employees, are made in the complaint.

Two members of the Jitney Buss Drivers' association, whose business has greatly increased during the strike, are among the defendants.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 8.—Having seen their places as employees of the traction company, taken by new labor, former employees of the company, who are on strike, have arranged to establish a line of twenty jitney busses with striking carmen as drivers.

Tipton, Ind., Nov. 8.—The first of the murder, blackmail and assault and battery cases growing out of the killing of Walter Varner recently by Mrs. Cora Robertson reached a hearing today when Mrs. Viola Alenbaugh was tried on the charge of assault. She is the mother of Mrs. Robertson.

Mrs. Robertson shot Varner, according to first reports, when he tried to break into her home. The prosecuting attorney later caused the arrest of Gilbert Robertson, 39, her husband, charged with blackmail. The state alleges that the Robertsons and Mrs. Alenbaugh conspired together to blackmail prominent Tipton county citizens through the "badger game." Varner the state alleges, was shot when he refused to be a party to the conspiracy and threatened to inform on the alleged blackmailers.

LABOR MEETING OPENS ON COAST

American Federation Gets Under

Way at San Francisco—Expect Stormy Session

PROHIBITION QUESTION TO COME UP

National Preparedness Program Also Will Likely Get Consideration From Gompers

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Samuel Gompers and representatives of nearly 4 million laborers of all classes in the United States were here at the opening today of the annual convention of The American Federation of Labor. There are 500 delegates. The convention will last two weeks.

The question of indorsing national prohibition is expected to cause much discussion in the convention. Matters of all degrees of importance effecting the various labor organizations represented, will be acted upon by the convention. President Gompers is expected to have considerable to say about the activities of foreign government agents fomenting trouble among laborers in munitions plants and elsewhere.

The question of the federation's endorsement or condemnation of increased national defense is expected to bring forth protracted discussion. Gompers and other labor leaders recently have declared themselves in favor of "reasonable" defense plans for the country. Just what constitutes "reasonable" defense it will be up to the convention to say. Endorsement of the LaFollette seamen's law and action on the Eastland disaster at Chicago is expected.

Meetings of the union label, metal trades, mining, railroad and building trades branches of the federation will be conducted at the same time

Approximately 5,000 Accidents Are Reported to Workmen's Compensation Board

400 CASES ARE SETTLED

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—The workmen's compensation board is making an excellent record, both in keeping up with the work and in satisfying employers and employees.

In September there were more than eighteen hundred accidents reported. In October there were more than three thousand, making in round numbers about five thousand in the two months, the increase in the second month being due to the larger number of people employed in the state as a result of increased business activity.

In September there were forty settlements where these were necessary because of the seriousness of the injuries. In October there were three hundred and thirty-three such settlements. With these five thousand accidents and near four hundred in which settlements have been ordered by the board, there have been but two contests by the interested parties. One of these is in a case where, since the awarding of the settlement, the employer believes the employee is able to go to work sooner than was anticipated in the first ruling. He wishes the employee to resume his duties.

This is a record worth mentioning since it is a fact that in no other state having a similar law has the board gone to work with such smooth workings and such satisfactory results for all concerned—this including the very economical management which satisfies all the people.

"Not in the slightest. The intelligent Christian who prays earnestly for the cure of a sick friend does not neglect to employ a good physician also. The good priest who prays hard for the conversion of sinners does not neglect the personal visit and the word of advice, warning, encouragement or threat. He knows that God wishes us to use every natural means at our disposal, but he knows also that God has given the supernatural gift of prayer. And so every nation has prayed, even though its religion or philosophy gave the lie thereto; so deeply rooted in the human heart is the belief in a supernatural help vouchsafed man for the asking.

"Our objector has in mind, undoubtedly, the superstitious fanaticism of the Dowdies for example, who, contrary to Christian principles, neglect the use of remedies in curing diseases; or perhaps the Christian Scientist, who speak of prayer, although their denial of a personal God makes the term a mockery.

"Why tell God our needs when

God knows them beforehand?

"The object of prayer is not to inform God of our necessities of our inmost sentiments of love, praise, sorrow, or thanksgiving for He, the omniscient One, knows all the secrets of our hearts.

"The Christian prays, however, to fulfill a duty written in the heart of man, and insisted on constantly by the Son of God. The elemental principle of religion is the acknowledgement of God as our Creator, Lord and Final Destiny and our utter dependence upon him. The revelation of Jesus Christ unfolding to us so many new proofs of that Creator's love, makes this acknowledgement the more imperative.

"The Son of God teaches us how to praise, bless, adore, thank, and crave pardon of God, and promises us favors through the invocation of His Holy Name: 'If you ask the Father anything in my name He will give it to you' (John. xvi. 23.)

"Why do not Catholics pray as the heart dictates instead of always repeating a certain number of set prayers?

"Because Our Lord taught us the beauty and efficacy of special prayers in that most perfect of all prayers, The Our Father (Luke xi.1-4) The Catholic church, teaching in His name, and with His Divine authority, has followed His example in sanctioning many other beautiful prayers, as the Hail Mary, the Creed, the Confiteor, the Prayers of the Mass, the Angelus, the Rosary, etc., in order that the members of a universal society may have in the unity of common prayer a common bond of devotion to God, and his Saints.

"Our objector must not forget, however, that besides vocal prayer there exists in the Catholic church the higher forms of mental and contemplative prayer, in which great saints, like St. Paul, St. Teresa, St. Catherine, excelled. We recommend to his careful study some of our elementary books on Christian Perfection, which will open a new field of vision into the spiritual life of Catholics. (Cf. Baker's Holy Wisdom.) Lallemand's "Spiritual Doctrine," Hilton's "Scale of Perfection," St. Teresa's "Autobiography," a Kempis' "Following of Christ" the Works of St. John of the Cross etc.)

"Is not a broken and a contrite heart a better offering to God, than a thousand repetitions of prayer?"

"Why will not the Catholic church allow divorce?" asked Father Conway in his lecture Saturday night.

"Is it not cruel to force a woman to live until the end with a drunkard or an adulterer?"

"Did not Christ expressly permit divorce in case of adultery?"

Father Conway answered these questions put to himself by the assertion that absolute prohibition of divorce from the marriage bond, with the right to marry another, rests on the express words of Jesus Christ and His Apostle St. Paul as follows: "What therefore God hath pointed together, let not man put asunder." * * * And he saith unto them: Whosoever shall put away his wife and marry another, committeth adultery against her." "And if the wife shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committed adultery." (Mark 10: 9-12.)

poor backslider. These men and women who have become discouraged and who need a brother's love to win them back and cheer them on. A man sometimes feels God-forsaken which he is not, and man-forsaken, which he is. Save a man! I heard a great lecturer trying to describe how great a man is. He said he stood beside Mt. Blanc and thought how long the majestic mountain had stood while generations of men had come and gone and yet the earth should melt with fervent heat and man should live, God will fold up the firmanent as you fold up a worn-out garment and still man shall live. We do not know how great a man is or what influences are started heavenward when he is saved. He cited Jerry McAulay, the president of a large industry as instance of men who were mighty powers for God. I never heard a man trying to describe how great a woman is, he said. A society leader in St. Louis was brought to Christ and her splendid womanhood became influential in the church until her name was known throughout the world. Save a child! Some one has said, 'Save an old man and you save one soul save a child and you save a multiplication table.'

HAVE GONE TO BELLEVUE, O.

(By United Press.)

Elwood, Ind., Nov. 8.—If Satan has a stronghold on Bellevue, O., he had best look to his defenses for the Stevens evangelistic company has opened an engagement there. The company ended a whirlwind campaign there and after a brief rest in its headquarters at Warsaw opened in Bellevue yesterday.

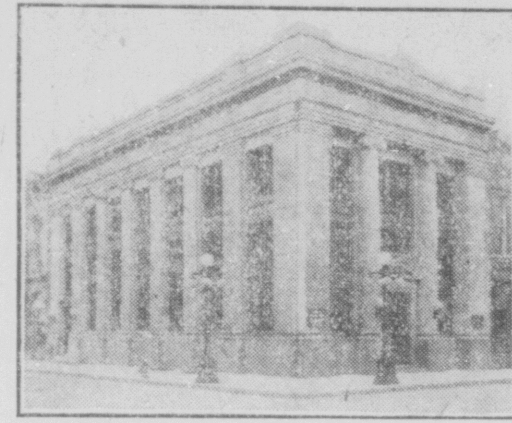

The record here was 1958 conversions and $1,939.30 cash receipts. In all $2,500 was pledged the party. The conversions cost Elwood slightly under $1 apiece, cash.

Probably the most spectacular conversion was that of Chief-of-Police Parsons. The police chief left Sunday for Richmond to attend the state meeting of Charities and Correction there. That was the last day of the revival here. Harry James a member of the Stevens evangelistic company, left for Bellevue on the same train. That night the Rev. Mr. Stevens was on the platform when he received a telegram which read:

"Chief of police Parson converted on train this afternoon."

Stevens read the telegram to the audience and it was greeted with applause that lasted several minutes.

ROBERT IS LIKE ONE HERE LATELY

Great Similarity Between Methods
of Burglar at Don Casady's

AND ONE AT HOLDEN HOUSE
In Each Case Window Blind Was
Folded and Pinned Up—$17
is Stolen From a Purse.

The home of Don Cassady, 830
North Jackson street, was entered last night and Mr. Casady's trousers containing $17 in money taken.
The method used in robbing the Cassady home was similar to that used
a few weeks ago at the home of Allen
R. Holden. The robber took a rock-ing chair from the front porch and standing on this opened a window in the kitchen.

Instead of rolling the window
blind and taking a chance of awakening the family the robber carefully folded the blind and then pinned it.
This was the plan followed by the robber who entered the Holden home.

Burnt matches were found scattered all over the house. The burglar quietly crept up stairs and took the trousers from a chair. The robbery was not discovered until this morning when the family came down stairs. An odd coat was also taken.

The money was in a pocketbook.
The pocketbook contained about $99 in valuable papers and these with the pocketbook were found in the alley south of the house.

An attempt was also made to enter the home of Dan Matlock, directly south of the Casady home.
At the Matlock home the robber found all the windows locked and failed to gain an entrance.

Gordon Hines And Harry Tilley
Fined $28.50 Each And Three Others Are Under Arrest.

SOME TROUBLE AT NEW SALEM

Alleged That Youths Were Jealous
Because They Had no Invitations—Nine Affidavits

Trying to break up a school social at New Salem because they were not invited proved costly for Gordon Hines, colored, and Harry Tilley of near New Salem. They pleaded guilty before Squire Kratzer to charges of carrying concealed weapons and disturbing a public meeting.
Their fines totaled $28.50 each. Both were fined one dollar and costs for carrying concealed weapons and five dollars on the other charge.

A total of nine affidavits against five young men was the outgrowth of the trouble at New Salem. Others involved in the trouble are Garrett Ricketts, Harry Beaver and Stanley Stewart. Two charges similar to the ones filed against Hines and Tilley, were placed against these boys, with the exception of Stewart, and the only one filed against him, that of disturbing the meeting.

It was alleged that about a week ago a school social was held at New Salem and that invitations were sent out. The young men involved failed to receive any and, it is claimed, went to the school building
where they created the disturbance.

The charges against all of them were filed by William Grosse, a teacher in the New Salem schools.
It is stated that the boys used profane language and made so much noise that the social was badly disturbed.

The Stewart boy will be given a hearing on November 11 at two o'clock in the afternoon, and the cases against Beaver and Ricketts are set for trial November 13. Ricketts is said to be ill and the date for his trial has not been set. The arrests were made by Deputy Sheriff Sullivan.

Befell Robert Kennedy

IS IN LOS ANGELES HOSPITAL

All that is known concerning the accident which befell Robert Kennedy, age sixty-seven years, a retired farmer of this city, is contained in a brief dispatch from Los Angeles, California printed in the Indianapolis Star this morning.

The dispatch states that he became confused by a speeding automobile as he was about to step from a street car at Fourth and Figueroa.
Los Angeles, Saturday night, missed
his footing and plunged to the pavement. He sustained a slight fracture of the skull and other injuries. The dispatch stated that doctors at the hospital said he might recover.

It is thought his condition is critical else some word would have been sent here. Mrs. Kennedy has a sister, Mrs. Ed Newby, living near Orange. His two sons, Jesse, of Indianapolis, and Clyde, who is out west, formerly lived here. Mr. Kennedy lives at the corner of Jackson and Tenth streets.

THREE ADDITIONS THE FIRST NIGHT

Rev. J. H. O. Smith, Who Opens Re-
vival Here, Extends Invitation
at the Second Service.

CHURCH CROWDED AT NIGHT

To Say It Makes no Difference What
We Believe if Our Lives Are Right is Foolish, He Says.

The revival services opened anxiously at the Main Street Christian church Sunday. The main auditorium and the Sunday school room of the church were packed with people and when the invitation was extended, three persons responded.

The meeting tonight promises to be of unusual interest. The song service will begin promptly at seven-thirty o'clock.

The Rev. J. H. O. Smith, who is conducting the revival, preached on the topic, "Christ's Way of Winning Men." Sunday night, The Rev. H. H.
Saunders, the singing evangelist, conducted a novel song service last night and also sang two solos.

The first service of the revival was held Sunday morning and a good-sized crowd was present. Dr. Smith spoke from the text, James 5; 19-20,
"Brethren if any of you do err from the truth and one convert him let him know that he who converts a sinner from the error of his way shall have a soul from death and hide a multitude of sins."

Sunday night the Rev. Mr. Smith said in part:

"When a reformer comes to town
we ask him four questions, What do you propose to do? What means do you propose to employ? How can these means work out the result?
Upon what power do you rely?
Christ came to save the lost. His method was love. His life demonstrated how love could reach and save men, and the power was the power of God.

"Pharisees never win anybody.
They pray to themselves, admire themselves and have hypnotized themselves into believing that they are better than others. Around these hypocrites the lack of Christ's invective hissed and writhed but for the poor sinner his gracious words were invitation and hope. Sin and sorrow go hand in hand. They are found together as cause and effect.
They walk through the world together and Christ came to bind up earth's broken hearts.

"The church is always discussing how to reach the masses. Who put any distance between the followers of Christ and the men he came to save? Go to them. If a sinner should get into some church he could be arrested for assault and battery.
We need the old time religion which makes us love everybody."

Speaking at the morning service
the evangelist said in part:

"We are here this morning because Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again, because He gave the great commission under which we preach and whose condition we accept, because our savior ascended to Heaven, because the Holy Spirit came, the Gospel was preached, the Bible was written and because we desire to see men saved
from sin, and to serve God and fel-lowmen.

"Erring from the truth and soul death are joined in this text as cause the effect. To say that it does not make any difference what we believe if our lives are right is like it does not make any difference what disease you have so you are in good health.

"I haven't an unkind word for the

TELLS WHY HE IS A CATHOLIC

Rev. Bertrand Conway Closes Series
of Lectures Here With Two Delivered Sunday.

On Saturday Night Father Conway
Gives Catholic Doctrine Concerning Divorce Question.

The Rev. Bertrand Conway, Paul-ist priest, closed a series of lectures at the St. Mary's church here with two on Sunday. In the morning he spoke on the topic "Prayer," and in the evening he told why he is a Catholic. On Saturday evening he discussed the divorce question and explained the Catholic doctrines respecting it.

"I am a Catholic because the Catholic church guarantees to me with a divine infallible certainty that answers to my soul most ardent longing—the union with God through Jesus Christ, God's only son in a society of God, founded in a love made perfect by the presence of God within me," declared Father Conway last night.

He said he was a Catholic because the Catholic church always protested against indifferentism and unbelief; his Christianity is built upon that foundation dogma that Jesus Christ is perfect man and perfect God in one divine personality; he rejects the teachings of the average non-Catholic Christian; he does not build upon a dead book which can not answer when it is cross-examined; "my church, by its claim of infallibility, is the only church that professes to represent the infallible Jesus, which others
logically declare they are but fallible voices that may lead men astray with regard to Christ's doctrine and worship;" his church is the one divine society ruled by St. Peter and his successor, the bishop of Rome, appointed by Christ to keep His church one in her infallible witness to His gospel; his church knows no modern origin in Germany, England, Switzerland, or America; no modern founder like Luther, Henry the Eighth, Zwingli, Calvin and the like—no modern doctrines like justification by faith alone, private interpretation of the Bible, etc.

Speaking on "Prayer" yesterday morning Father Conway said:

"Is not prayer asking God to change the laws of nature He Himself established?"

"St. Thomas Aquinas thus answers this difficulty ('Summa,' 2a 2ae, q83. a2.) In proclaiming the utility of prayer, we are not to be understood as putting any restraint
on human acts subject to Divine Providence nor are we supposing any change in the ordinances of God. Divine Providence has determined in advance, not only the effects which are to be produced but also their order and the causes which are to produce them. Among these causes are included human acts. Man, therefore, must do something, not indeed to change by his acts the arrangement of God,
but to concur in producing certain effects in accordance with the divine dispensation. Just as it is with regard to physical causes, so it is too with regard to prayer. The aim of prayer is not to alter the designs of God, but to ask that we may obtain what God has determined to grant us by our prayers." (Card. Gibbons,
"Our Christian Heritage," ch. ix,
American Cath. Quarterly, 1896, p.
491.)

"Does not prayer encourage laziness
and make people neglect doing

Trade Protest

NEWSPAPERS MORE CAUTIOUS

TOO MILD, GERMAN VIEW
(By United Press.)
Berlin, Nov. 8.—"Too mild" and
"too late" was the general tenor of the criticism today of the American note to England concerning British interference with American trade at sea.

(By United Press.)
London, Nov. 8.—England is very resentful of the tone of President Wilson's note concerning the English interference with American trade.

Comment by the "Man in the Street" today is far more outspoken
to this effect than were newspapers.
The latter, while vigorously defending the blockade and deploring what they term "the harsh wording" of the communication, are careful to explain that no serious trouble is to be expected between the two countries and expressed being hurt rather than angry at the American chief's attitude. Individual utterances, however, are very bitter.

The popular view seems to be that the president had the "hyphenated vote" clearly in mind in what he said that he put American profit much higher than vital British necessities
and that the most resolute answer ought to be returned to the effect that England does not propose to be hampered in its life and death struggle by consideration for American over-sea trade.

WILL NOT SUPPORT WILSON'S PROGRAM

Rep. Kitchen, House Floor Leader,
After Conference With President
Makes Statement.

SAID HE HAD TO BE SHOWN

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 8.—Representative Kitchen, house floor leader, said
after an hour's talk with President Wilson, this afternoon, that he would not support the administration's war preparedness program.
When he entered the White House he said "I am going to be shown." When he came out he said, "I had a very pleasant conversation with the president and all I can say is that I regret very much not to be able to support his program."

Kitchen did not attempt to make an acrimonious statement upon the defense program. He said he would merely say on the floor of the house
why he could not stand by the president.

"I think I can say that I will be in the minority," said Representative Kitchen.

INFANT CHILD IS DEAD.

Eileen, the four-months-old child
of Mr. and Mrs. Knowles Casady, died last evening at seven o'clock at their home in West Ninth street. The cause of death was pneumonia. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock at the residence and will be private.
Friends are invited. Burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

to Enforce Demands Made on

ACTION NOT WORDS WANTED

No Reply Expected For Some Weeks
Points Raised.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 8.—It is England's next move. The administration today considered measures to enforce the demands made in this government's last note protesting against British interference with American trade.

Action instead of words is expected from England as a proper reply to the note.

It probably will be some weeks before a reply can come from England.
Because of the length of the American note and because of the legal and technical points raised, it will be impossible for the British foreign office to reply immediately.

A brief survey of the note of protest shows the following points stand out in bold relief:

The so-called blockade instituted
by the allies against enemy countries is ineffective, illegal and indefensible.

The United States insists its relations with the British government be governed, not by a policy of expediency, but by those established rules of international conduct to which Great Britain in the past has held the United States to account
when the latter was a belligerent, engaged in a struggle for national existence.

The United States unhesitatingly assume the task of championing the integrity of neutral rights, and will devote its energies to the task, exercising always an impartial attitude.

The United States can not submit to a curtailment of its neutral rights
by these measures, which are admittedly retaliatory and therefore illegal in conception and in nature, and intended to punish the enemies of Great Britain for alleged irregularities on their part.

It (the United States) can not with complacency suffer further subordination of its rights and interests to the plea that the exceptional geographic position of the enemies of Great Britain requires or justifies oppressive and illegal practices.

It is of the highest importance for neutrals, not only of the present day,
but of the future, that the principles of international right be maintained unimpaired.

Statistics cited by the British gov-

"The Paper Says"

How naturally the phrase comes to the lips.

The newspaper says a thing
and it becomes accepted as fact,
for the newspaper is a most intimate part of every day life.

It holds its commission direct from the people themselves and grows great as it serves them.

That is what makes it such a wonderful advertising medium.

People look on the printed message of business as part of the news of the day—a most helpful and interesting part.

The newspaper advertised article gains a prestige obtainable
in no other way.

Pyorrhea—the disease nearly everybody has

No matter how sound your teeth may seem to be, no matter how you may scoff at the idea of your having this disease, it is a positive fact that the germ which causes it is working now in your teeth.

The appalling discovery of this fact—that the germ which causes pyorrhea is one which inhabits every human mouth—was made over a year ago. Since then dentists have been urging everyone to take special precautions in their daily toilet to prevent this disease from developing in its acute form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth.

To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described: A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address: The Senreco Remedies Co., 505 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

QUOTES BIBLE TO SHOW ATTITUDE

President Wilson Cites Verses From Ezekiel to Explain Position on Preparedness.

(By United Press.) Washington, Nov. 8.—In a letter to Seth Low of New York, made public today, President Wilson stated that his attitude on national defense will be in brief the Biblical quotation from the second, third, fourth fifth and sixth verses of the thirty-third chapter of Ezekiel. These verses read as follows:

"Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, when I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; if, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his own blood shall be upon his own head. He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul.

"But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, and the sword come, and they take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand."

USE ROAD DRAG IS ADVICE GIVEN

WINTER CARE OF HIGHWAYS

Keep Ditches And Drains Open so Water Will Not Stand on Surface, it is Stated

Water, not cold, is the cause of the deterioration of roads in winter, according to a road specialist of the United States department of agriculture at Washington.

Cold weather does not in itself injure roads, no matter whether they are earth, gravel or macadam. In fact, an earth road will stand more traffic when it is solidly frozen than at any other time. Excess water, however, is always detrimental to a highway. When cold weather turns this water into ice, the damage that it does is greatly increased. Ice occupies considerably more space than the water from which it is formed, and every person who has lived in a cold climate is familiar with the powerful bursting effect of water when left to freeze in a confined vessel. The same action takes place when a wet road freezes to any considerable depth. It simply bursts, or, as we generally term it in road parlance, the road heaves. Later, when the frost leaves, the road is disintegrated and ruts badly. If this process is repeated a number of times during the winter, a gravel or macadam road may be practically destroyed, while an earth road may become entirely impassable.

A dry road will not heave. Rock, gravel, sand, and even clay when perfectly dry contract slightly on freezing. In order to expand on freezing, these materials must contain or be mixed with water, and the more water they contain the greater the expansion which takes place. But so long as the road remains frozen the damage does not become apparent. Hence the frequent and erroneous idea that it is the thaw which injures the road. The injury was done when the water in the road and the particles of the road surface—broken stone, sand, or still finer particles of earth or clay—were pushed apart by the expanding power of the freezing water. The thaw merely allows the ice to melt and assume its original volume as water.

The remedy is self-evident. Keep the water out of the road. The time to begin preventive measures, is early in the fall, before the rains begin. If the road goes into the winter thoroughly dry, with the surface and drainage in good condition, the changes are extremely favorable that it will come out all right the following spring.

Keep the ditches and drains open. Remove all accumulations of weeds, grass, etc., which tend to retain moisture and obstruct drainage. Furthermore, do this work early, while the ground is still dry and hard. Vegetation and litter hold water like a sponge and allow it gradually to soak in and soften the earth. The job before the road man is to keep the hard, dry surface formed in the summer time from becoming softened by the fall and winter rains and snows. When the fall rains begin the earth or gravel road should be dragged frequently to prevent the formation of ruts and the collection of water. All raveled places on macadam surfaces should be carefully filled in and consolidated.

and side ditches should be opened up as far as possible so as to prevent water collecting along the roadway. If the thaw is so pronounced that the roadway is softened, the drag should be used; sometimes one round trip of the drag, with the hitch reversed, will entirely rid the earth road of slush and melting snow and leave the road surface practically dry. Don't get the idea that the drag is not needed on your earth and gravel roads in the winter time. Instead, keep it where you can get at it readily, for if the winter is an ordinary one you will need it many times.

Winter destruction begins in the early fall. The best way to prevent such destruction is to forestall it. Keep the road dry and remember that so long as it remains so it will not be seriously injured by frost. Keep the drains open, the ditches clear, remove all vegetation and litter, and use the drag frequently. If the road is kept dry to a depth of 2 feet below the surface there will be little trouble from the coldest winter.

America, like the newly born kitten, has been sleeping these many years with eyes closed and the possibilities of the future an impenetrable blank.

But today the national eye is beginning to open and the light of reason is sinking in.

The president, admits that the overturning of the old world by the sword and the shell, and the lust for blood and conquest which permeates nearly every nation of the earth, has placed the United States in the most precarious position of its history.

The president wants the American people to prepare to defend themselves against the invader when he appears. That is, Mr. Wilson would have a large number of citizens throughout the country enlisted in an army reserve, fully equipped, ready to take the field following the forces of the regular army and the national guard.

We all love peace and want peace
but we fear that in the present temper of the world the only positive guarantee of peace is to possess the means of thrashing the other fellow.

Let us have a great army of citizen-reserves men who are willing to acquire some knowledge of the duties of a soldier before they are called upon to perform those duties
in the face of an enemy.

The safety of our country today depends upon the strong arm of its citizenship—upon you, and upon us,
and others of our class.

The national eye has been opened,
with the result that we will have safety without the curse of aggressive militarism.

Dollars And Ducks

It is well for young men to know that dollars are like ducks—one follows another—and though they may waddle along slowly and with some effort, they will eventually get there.

We have young men in this town who are just starting out on the road of life, but where that road
will lead is for them to say.

They are earning a few dollars
now and as time progresses their earning capacity will increase. If the early accumulations are thrown to the birds it is more than likely that in later life the buzzards will roost on the graves of their ambition.

But if their first dollars are carefully laid away in a well sewed pocket, and this lesson of thrift and frugality is fostered and encouraged then in time the bank will become the depository of their earnings and accumulations and eventual wealth,
and the eagle will soar over the heads of successful men.

Those who waste today will squander tomorrow, and tomorrow is the agent of the devil and the prime minister of hell.

Keep an eye on the young men,
but keep both eyes on those who spend wisely but not foolishly, who are full of life and ginger but never carry it to excess, whose eyes are fixed upon the eagle and not upon the buzzard.

Like the waddling duck, they may advance slowly, but they will get there in time.

Secretary Redfield regards himself as having partially squared his account with Mayor Thompson of Chicago. During the investigation into the Eastland catastrophe Mayor Thompson asked President Wilson to recall Secretary Redfield. Since that time inspectors of the department of commerce have discovered that the city of Chicago was operating a makeshift motor boat in violation of the navigation laws and ordered a fine of $200 for the defense.
The city, at the Mayor's suggestion asked to have the fine remitted; and the Secretary, with much glee, refused the request. This is pretty small business for a Cabinet officer.
But Redfield is pretty small potatoes
anyway.

War is a blessing to mankind, asserts Rev. Dr. Eaton, a Baptist pastor, while Dr. Jacobi the dean of the American medical profession, declares that the war will cast a blight upon the race for fifty years. The one sees through the war a curb upon the use of intoxicating liquors

and the other sees loss of virility,
physique and possibly mentality.

The wise man not only looks out for self, but views matters pertaining to himself from every angle. If to save a penny in one way leads to the loss of a dollar in some other way, then he hangs on to the dollar and lets the penny go. It is so in the purchase of merchandise. You can not discriminate against home institutions and still expect those institutions to thrive and increase the value of your own property.
Such a course can result in but one way—in disaster for the community and for yourself.

Wilhelm is still kaiser, George is still king, and the war is still hell.

Bragging it always excusable
when you brag of your home town.

Our own little dove of peace appears to be perking up of late.

Grow up with your town and help
the town to grow with you.

When the war is over let us hope it will be over.

Eat, drink and be merry—but be merry anyway.

A good wife is three-fourths of any man.

Has it been summer, or winter?

(Portland Oregonian.)
Carranza has insolently and consistently refused to recognize the United States; therefore the United States will insist upon recognizing him. To a result so humiliating and pitiful has come the Mexican policy of President Wilson.

It is the latest, but not the final,
development of watchful waiting.
For if Carranza, boastful, unscrupulous, garrulous and cowardly, shall set up a Carranza government at Mexico City, it cannot last, for Carranza has little ability and small prestige, and he will speedily pass on to join Diaz, Huerta and Madero, unless there shall be something more than moral support from the United States. There will not be, of course, so long as President Wilson continues under the hypnotic spell of his own power to make fine phrases as substitute for effective action.

Mexico is our Belgium and we let its people suffer and starve, while we talk glibly about their right of self-government.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared for the United Press by

MORTON IN 1860

Having headed the state ticket of the new party in 1856, Morton and his friends expected that he would again be nominated for Governor in 1860. Prospects for success were bright and Morton's adroars, faithful labors entitled him to reward.
But Republican leaders picked Henry S. Lane, a former Whig as their standard bearer, considering him more "available." To Morton was given the nomination for the second post, that of Lieut. Gov. Though disappointed, he accepted, out of loyalty to his party. Had he refused he would not now be known as the great War Governor.

Mayor Dismisses Three Charges Against Lew Story Today.

Deciding that it was about fifty-fifty between Lew Story and Stanley
Kemp, Mayor Behout acquitted
Story on three charges this morning in police court. Story was charged with provoke, carrying concealed weapons and with profanity.
Kemp was the prosecuting witness,
having filed all three of the charges against Story. The trouble occurred during horse show week. The mayor held that the state did not have sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction and found Story not guilty.
All three of the cases were tried
this morning.

SEES BRIGHT FUTURE FOR UNITED STATES

James E. Watson Tells Jovians we Need to Rehabilitate Our Merchant Marine.

HAVE MEN, MONEY, GENIUS

"We need to rehabilitate our merchant marine; we should have the carrying trade of the world, situated as we are between the two imperial oceans of the world," James E. Watson said Saturday in speaking at the noon luncheon of the Jovian League
at the Hotel Severin, says the Indianapolis Sunday Star. He also asserted that the future prospects of the nation never were brighter than at present. He called attention to the crops in this country, and the money in the banks. The fact that the commercial competitors of the United States are at war and unable to do anything toward building up their trade is an opportunity for manufacturers of this country to increase sales, according to Mr. Watson. "We have the men, the money,
the genius, the enterprise and the opportunity, and all we need to do is to enter and take possession; this means improved railroad facilities,
and the establishment of branch banks to facilitate exchange," he said. About forty Jovians attended the luncheon.

SIX INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED

Robert Fay and Others in Plot to Hinder Shipment of Munitions
Placed Under Arrest.

CONSPIRACY IS ALLEGED

(By United Press.)
New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The Federal grand jury today returned indictments against six of the alleged conspirators in the plot to blow up vessels carrying munitions of war to the allies. Among those indicted were:

Robert Fay, self-styled German army officer, who told secret service men he was sent here to hinder the shipment of war munitions to the allies by the German government.

Max Bretung, of whom little is known.

Walter Scholtz, brother-in-law of Fay, who was arrested with Fay near Weehauken, N. J., while testing explosives.

Edward Bronkhurst, a mining engineer who is an alleged partner of Fay, who was to place the explosive under the rudder of the ship to be blown up.

City Will Profit on $430 at Ten Per Cent as Result of Failures
Under Barrett Law.

HAVE UNTIL DECEMBER 1

Collections for improvements under the Barrett law were very good, according to City Treasurer Stech. Something like $80 remains unpaid for street improvements and a total of $350 remains unpaid on the sewer improvements. The property owners have until December 1 to pay these Barrett law assessments, plus the ten per cent penalty. It is compulsory under the law to add the ten per cent for collection after November 1.

Under the law if these assessments and the ten per cent additional are not paid by December 1 they are to be certified over to the auditor and placed on the tax duplicate as delinquent. The property against which the assessment is levied is then sold at a delinquent tax sale the same as all other delinquent property.

MEMORY SUDDENLY FAILS SWANNIGAN

Man in Police Court Said he Could
Not Remember Name of
"Bootlegger."

IS HELD ON TWO CHARGES

Tom Swannigan's memory suddenly "went to the bad" this morning in police court. After telling Mayor Bebout that he bought a pint of whiskey from a "bootlegger," he could not remember the man's name. He was arraigned for public intoxication and when asked where he obtained the "booze" stated that he paid a "bootlegger" fifty cents for a pint of whiskey. This was all he could remember and refused to give the name of the man who sold him the whiskey.

A charge of assault and battery was also placed against Swannigan. He is alleged to have beat upon his wife Saturday afternoon. He pleaded not guilty to this charge and sentence on the intoxication charge was withheld until the assault case was tried.

Thomas Laughlin also pleaded guilty to an intoxication charge and was fined one dollar and costs. He went back to jail for eleven days.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast
bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health. When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

RUSHVILLE BEATS CAMBRIDGE CITY

Local Team Starts Scoring in the Last Half and Run up Total

The Rushville football team added another victory to its long string yesterday when the Cambridge City aggregation fell a victim to the attack of the locals. The final score was 30 to 0. It should have been more but the Rushville offensive did not get to working until the last half of the game.

Most of the play in the first half was in Cambridge City territory but Rushville could not score. A drop kick failed in the first quarter and in the second quarter after working the ball to within the ten yard line the locals failed to count, when a series of line bucks failed and few penalties helped Cambridge City.

In the third quarter Rushville started out to show some class. Bierk recovered the ball on the kick off and Rushville then marched down the field for a touch down. Two touchdowns and in each case a goal were made in this quarter. In the fourth quarter Rushville was not to be denied and continued the work started in the third quarter. Two touchdowns and a touchback were registered in this session, bringing the total up to 30 points. Bierk, a new man in the line, added much strength to the Rushville team and long gains by Wooster and Mattox helped the team along.

The score by quarters:
Rushville 0-0-14-16-30

ernment to prove an increase rather than a decrease in American trade fail to take into account the increased price of commodities resulting from the war or to make any allowance for the diminution in the volume of trade which the neutral countries of Europe previously had with the nations of war.

Detention of neutral vessels, has not been based on proofs . . . but for search for evidence to support the belief of—in many cases a bare suspicion of—enemy destination.

The assertion that the position of the United States in relation to search at sea is inconsistent with its practices during the civil war is based on a misconception, as proved by the records.

United States naval experts have shown by a recent report that modern vessels have facilities for boarding and inspection that make their search for contraband possible without removal to a belligerent port.

The United States maintains the right to sell goods into the general stock of a neutral country and denounces as illegal and unjustifiable any attempt of a belligerent to interfere with that right on the ground that it suspects that the previous supply of such goods in the neutral country, which the exports renew or replace, has been sold to an enemy.

The United States has no course other than to contest seizures of vessels at sea upon conjectural suspicion.

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Chicago, Philadelphia And Frisco After G. O. P. National Convention Next Year

Southern Delegation Has Been Decreased Ninety Members— Total Now is 988

(By United Press.) Washington, Nov. 8.—The real, regular machinery which will pick and groom the next Republican and Democratic candidates for president will be started up in December.

With the meetings here of the National committees at that time, the dates and places of meeting of the Democratic and Republican conventions will be decided upon. From then on, committee headquarters here will be busily watching booms, primaries, delegations and the other details of the program of picking the president.

Chicago, Philadelphia, and San Francisco are bidding for the republican convention. The seaboard cities find Chicago's central location is the chief thing they have to combat and each is going about offsetting this in her own way. The convention will be held the latter part of June.

Dallas, St. Louis, Chicago, Buffalo and Omaha are contenders for the democratic convention.

Responding to a demand following the last Republican convention, there has been a cut of ninety delegates, largely among the southern delegations, which represented districts in which there is little republican strength. The number cut off is as follows: Alabama, 8; Arkansas, 3; Florida, 4; Georgia, 12; Louisiana, 8; Mississippi, 8; New York, 2; North Carolina, 3; South Carolina, 7; Tennessee, 2; Texas, 14; Virginia, 9. It has been ruled that the Hawaiian, Philippine and Porto Rican delegates, numbering ten, cannot vote, and they are included in the ninety.

This brings the number of Republican delegates down to 988. The Democratic delegation number 1,088.

In nineteen states, the delegations are now chosen by primaries, and these are looked forward to with keen interest as showing the desires of the country in the matter of candidates. The primaries will be held as follows:

Indiana, March 7, Minnesota, March 14; New Hampshire, March 14; North Dakota, March 21; Michigan, April 3; Wisconsin, New York, Illinois, April 4; Iowa, April 10; Nebraska, Oregon, April 18; Massachusetts, April 25; Maryland, May 1; California, Ohio, May 9; Pennsylvania, May 16; New Jersey, May 23; South Dakota, West Virginia, June 6.

In Alabama, there is a primary bill pending in the legislature and in Vermont the primary bill passed will be voted upon at a referendum this winter. Of the 988 republican delegates, 582 or considerably over half are named in this way, and slightly over half of the democratic delegates. The remainder are chosen in caucuses.

Sentiment at democratic headquarters here is all Wilson. At republican headquarters officials are "strictly neutral" on candidates.

The action to be taken by the Progressive party is expected to be made known by Committee Chairman Victor Murdock at Wichita, Kansas, in a few weeks.

WAR NEWS OF ONE YEAR AGO TODAY.

- Russian's Galician successes, including the taking of 13,000 Austrian prisoners and many war supplies, worried Berlin, which called a council of war of the German retreat.
- Assumption of the offensive between Lys and the North sea and several important advances in the entire line were claimed by the Allies. Germany claimed an Arzonne victory.

VOTE FOR WILSON IS PATRIOTISM

NATION'S FATE IN HIS HANDS

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—That Woodrow Wilson is the Democratic party, and that he is Congress, and that he is the State Department and all the rest of the Cabinet has been well known for some time.

But that he claims to be virtually the whole Nation also was not known until he disclosed it in his speech to the D. A. R. at their silver jubilee.

The propriety of using the occasion for making a speech such as the President's was, has been seriously questioned by many of the ladies who heard him; but it is among politicians that the speech created the most widespread interest. With one accord they recognize that the President was sounding a campaign slogan, and there is a serious division of opinion regarding the probable result.

In effect, the President declared that he wants an immediate line-up on the question, "Is America first or is it not?" He voiced his opinion that in all "political agitations of the years which are immediately at hand," it will be necessary for every man to make his position known.

Now it is evident that the only "line-up" and the only "political agitations" which will develop from the President's campaign for re-election. Mr. Wilson is held to be trying to make it appear that the only way to demonstrate patriotism in that connection is by voting for him.

Never, within recollection here, has a president gone so far in seeking to identify his own personality and his own political fortunes with the fate of the Nation. Washington is thoroughly familiar with the type of mind which life in the White House tends to develop. We know perfectly well how the isolation of the Executive Mansion, with no one seeing the President whom he does not wish to see and with no one telling him anything except what he wants to hear—we know perfectly well how this sort of a life breeds the idea in a President's mind that he is a sort of Superman, that his opinions are always correct, that his actions are always wise and just, that he is, in short, infallible. Even the judicial Taft was not always immune to the microbe of such an idea—and Washington well remembers when the White House echoed with rhapsodies on the superiority of "my policies" as developed by "a man of my type."

Washington can remember many a President who has believed that his fellow-citizens who did not vote for him were misguided, or short-sighted, or unjust. But Washington cannot recall a President who has believed that his political opponents were unpatriotic or un-American.

Yet Washington interprets Mr. Wilson's speech to the D. A. R. as meaning nothing short of this; and Washington believes that the President has thereby raised an issue which will pursue him to a fatal political end.

The President even now has no clear-cut majority mandate from the people of the United States. Only forty-two per cent of the electorate of the United States. Only forty-two per cent of the electorate voted for him in 1912; and the indications are that no more will vote for him in 1916; while the divided opposition which blessed his fortunes three years ago is no longer in existence. Yet the President is trying to assert that he embodies all of the patriotism and all of the spirit of nationality which the country possesses, and that whoever does not give him complete political support is traitorous and un-American. This is the foreign doctrine of lese-majeste transplanted to America. There are speedy evidences that this exotic plant will be blasted in the hot indignation of the millions of Americans who did not vote for Wilson before, who do not propose to vote for him next year, and who know that they are just as patriotic as he is—if not more so.

BRONCHITIS, BRONCHIAL ASTHMA AND SEVERE COUGHS PROMPTLY RELIEVED

With Best Home-Made Medicine— 128 Teaspoonfuls—50 Cents.

One of the most dangerous things to neglect is a Cold or Severe Cough. If treatment is commenced promptly with the proper remedy, both are easily cured, but if neglected they oft-times develop into Pneumonia or Consumption, or some Chronic Bronchial affection. Most persons neglect treating themselves for the principal reason that they either don't think it serious enough to go to a doctor; thinking it will get well itself without treatment or don't know what good medicine to buy at a drug store, and if something more serious doesn't develop, it becomes deep-seated through this neglect and hangs on the whole winter, when it might have otherwise been speedily cured, had Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expecto-rant been used promptly.

No risk whatever is run in buying this remedy as Fox Bros. Drug Store will refund your money if it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found to be the very best remedy you have ever used for stubborn Coughs, Colds, Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough and Hoarseness.

This new remedy is altogether different from any other kind, and is so strongly concentrated that two ounces (50c worth), make a full pint, 128 teaspoonfuls of excellent cough medicine, by simply mixing it at home with one pint of granulated sugar and one half pint of water. It makes a whole family supply, while bottles of the old-fashioned, ordinary, ready-made kinds, of doubtful merit and without a guarantee usually only hold 20 to 32 teaspoonfuls. It is prepared from strictly harmless plants and is so pleasant that children like to take it and it can be given them with perfect safety as it positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. All druggists of this city sell it under the same "Money-Back" guarantee as the famous Asthma-cure. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor, St. Paul, Minn.

during the summer is a fat man wearing a sport shirt and the most distressing sight in the winter is to see someone trying to get along without A GOOD STORM BUGGY. If you knew how warm one of my storm buggies would keep you, how well they are made, now nice they look, and what a general comfort they would be to the whole family, you certainly would own one before the end of the week. I have used special pains to obtain a line of storm buggies that have all the little things that make them desirable, quality and style together with a comfortably designed cushion and back, easy riding springs, fine finish and the best of material throughout, are some of the essential things found on them and you are welcome at all times to call and see for yourself and I assure you it will be a pleasure to show you the detail construction of these buggies at any time. The construction of a STORM BUGGY makes lots of difference in the draft and I will explain to you why these buggies are lighter draft than others. It only takes a few minutes of your time to look at our stock and it will mean years of regret if you don't. Now is the time to get ready for winter, SO DO IT NOW.

ARE NOT STRONG FOR NEW UNION

Indianapolis Suffragists Will Likely Give Chicago Organizers a Cold Reception

ARE COMING IN AUTOMOBILES

Cavalcade of Congressional Union is Enroute From San Francisco to Washington

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Prospects were for a typical November reception for the automobile cavalcade of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage when it arrives here today. The reception probably will be chilly. Suffragists in Indianapolis are not strong for the Congressional Union.

The cavalcade is enroute from San Francisco to Washington, carrying hundreds of thousands of suffrage petitions. It plans to call upon several Indiana congressmen before leaving the state and sound them on the suffrage issue.

Whatever greetings the cavalcade gets here probably will be extemporaneous. If attempts made to organize a local reception committee have succeeded, it is not known. The Congressional Union is the rather bitter rival of the National American Woman Suffrage association, with which the Woman's Franchise League of Indiana is allied.

Mrs. Meredith Nicholson is a member of the Congressional Union, and the Union organizers wrote her, asking that she organize a welcome. But Mrs. Nicholson also is a member of the Woman's Franchise League—and she wrote back to the Chicago organizers that she would not be in Indianapolis today. Before leaving the city she informed the United Press that she had not turned the Union letters over to other Indianapolis women, and that she knew nothing whatever about any plans for a welcome.

Another announced plan was for Governor Ralston to welcome the cavalcade from the steps of the Statehouse. But Gov. Ralston is in Ohio today, and at the Governor's office nothing was known of a welcome to be performed.

A woman connected with the Woman's Franchise League in an official capacity explained today that the methods of the two suffrage organizations differ. "The Union leaders obtained their training in England and are more militant," she said. "Then they differ in other ways. For example, they have been attacking the Democratic party in the west, while we avoid party lines. They first announced that they did not believe in organization, but seeing that without organization they would fail, they are now entering various states where we are organized and are trying to disrupt our organization."

No one was found who would say that the chilly reception promised the cavalcade is due to activities of the Woman's Franchise League.

LARGE SUM FOR FARM EXTENSION

In This State Alone $182,362 is Available to be Spent by the Federal Government

TOTAL FOR U. S. $4,782,270

Funds Made Up of Appropriations Under Smith-Lever Agricultural Measure.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The department of agriculture today made public the complete allotment of funds available for agricultural extension work in Indiana during the fiscal year 1915-16. This includes total funds from all sources—federal, state and local. The federal funds are made up of appropriations under the Smith-Lever agricultural extension act, appropriations for farmers' co-operative demonstration work and appropriations through other bureaus in the department of agriculture.

In the final and complete allotment of funds the state ranks near the top in respect to amount received. Only four other states will have more funds available for this work. The total Indiana allotment is $182,362. The four states that will have more money for agricultural extension at their disposal are Iowa, $229,878; New York, 219,791; North Carolina, $192,154; Texas, $234,534. Illinois, which is pre-eminent in agricultural state, trails Indiana, its total allotment being $149,539. Ohio, with only $117,279, is far behind Indiana.

The specific purposes for which the Indiana agricultural extension funds are allotted are as follows: Administration, $6,291; publications, $1,000; county agents, $110,571; home demonstration, $4,200; movable schools, $10,700; boys' club work, $15,400; live stock, $4,750; poultry, $2,500; dairying, $7,750; horticulture, $5,700; plant diseases and insects, $4,800; farm management, $5,000; other purposes, $1,200.

The total amount raised for agricultural extension in the United States during the present fiscal year is $4,782,270, of which $2,115,000 is to come from federal sources and the remainder is to be made up by the states and localities to be benefited. In the country at large more than one-half the total co-operative agricultural extension funds is to be used to carry on county agent activities. The next item of importance, so far as the distribution of funds is concerned, is the home economic or home demonstration work for farm girls and women. To this has been assigned more than $542,000.

Read this: Harrison Levi, 931 North Sexton street, Rushville, says: "I used to have to get up six or seven times, each night on account of the too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. Often they were scanty and accompanied by pain. I also had severe backaches. Nothing ever did me any good until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Johnson's Drug Store. It didn't take them long to fix me up. The pain left and my kidneys became regular in action." (Statement given July 27, 1912.)

STRIKE CASE HEARD TODAY

Injunction Suit Involving Fort Wayne Car Company and Old Employees up in Federal Court

Union Labor is Not Used Now and Company Fears Further Trouble —Jitneys Cut in.

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—Mayor William C. Hosey and the city of Fort Wayne together with leaders in Fort Wayne unions and fifty-eight former employees of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company were defendants today in Federal court in injunction proceedings brought by the bondholders of the company. A temporary injunction is asked preventing opposition to the traction company. The whole affair is an outgrowth of street car strike called in Fort Wayne six weeks ago.

Although the traction company asserts that the strike is practically won by the company, in that cars are working with new employees the attempt here today is to prevent disorders said to result from the activities of the strikers and their sympathizers.

Unionized labor in Fort Wayne totals more than 8,000 according to the complaint of the traction company, and this, it is alleged, has united against the company with the result that the receipts have been seriously reduced.

The complaint gives the cause of the strike that leaders of the men asked the company to conduct a "closed" shop and also to break its existing agreement with the employees. Charges that the present employees of the company have been assaulted; that rocks and other missiles have been hurled against the company's property and that the citizens of Fort Wayne have been terrorized by former employees, are made in the complaint.

Two members of the Jitney Buss Drivers' association, whose business has greatly increased during the strike, are among the defendants.

RUN "JITNEYS"

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 8.—Having seen their places as employees of the traction company, taken by new labor, former employees of the company, who are on strike, have arranged to establish a line of twenty jitney busses with striking carmen as drivers.

Mrs. Viola Alenbaugh Faces Assault Charge in This Trial—Black-mail Alleged

INVOLVES MURDER OF VARNER

(By United Press.)

Tipton, Ind., Nov. 8.—The first of the murder, blackmail and assault and battery cases growing out of the killing of Walter Varner recently by Mrs. Corn Robertson reached a hearing today when Mrs. Viola Alenbaugh was tried on the charge of assault. She is the mother of Mrs. Robertson.

Mrs. Robertson shot Varner, according to first reports, when he tried to break into her home. The prosecuting attorney later caused the arrest of Gilbert Robertson, 30, her husband, charged with blackmail. The state alleges that the Robertsons and Mrs. Alenbaugh conspired together to blackmail prominent Tipton county citizens through the "badger game." Varner, the state alleges, was shot when he refused to be a party to the conspiracy and threatened to inform on the alleged blackmailers.

LABOR MEETING OPENS ON COAST

American Federation Gets Under Way at San Francisco—Expect Stormy Session

National Preparedness Program Also Will Likely Get Consideration From Gompers

(By United Press.) San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Samuel Gompers and representatives of nearly 4 million laborers of all classes in the United States were here at the opening today of the annual convention of The American Federation of Labor. There are 500 delegates. The convention will last two weeks.

The question of indorsing national prohibition is expected to cause much discussion in the convention. Matters of all degrees of importance affecting the various labor organizations represented, will be acted upon by the convention. President Gompers is expected to have considerable to say about the activities of foreign government agents fomenting trouble among laborers in munitions plants and elsewhere.

The question of the federation's endorsement or condemnation of increased national defense is expected to bring forth protracted discussion. Gompers and other labor leaders recently have declared themselves in favor of "reasonable" defense plans for the country. Just what constitutes "reasonable" defense it will be up to the convention to say. Endorsement of the LaFollette seamen's law and action on the Eastland disaster at Chicago is expected.

Meetings of the union label, metal trades, mining, railroad and building trades branches of the federation will be conducted at the same time.

FIRST TWO MONTHS SEES MANY MISHAPS

Approximately 5,000 Accidents Are Reported to Workmen's Compensation Board

400 CASES ARE SETTLED

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—The workmen's compensation board is making an excellent record, both in keeping up with the work and in satisfying employers and employees.

In September there were more than eighteen hundred accidents reported. In October there were more than three thousand, making in round numbers about five thousand in the two months, the increase in the second month being due to the larger number of people employed in the state as a result of increased business activity.

In September there were forty settlements where these were necessary because of the seriousness of the injuries. In October there were three hundred and thirty-three such settlements. With these five thousand and accidents and near four hundred in which settlements have been ordered by the board, there have been but two contests by the interested parties. One of these is in a case where, since the awarding of the settlement, the employer believes the employee is able to go to work sooner than was anticipated in the first ruling. He wishes the employee to resume his duties.

This is a record worth mentioning since it is a fact that in no other state having a similar law has the board gone to work with such smooth workings and such satisfactory results for all concerned, including the very economical management, which satisfies all the people.

HAVE GONE TO BELLEVUE, O.

(By United Press.)
Elwood, Ind., Nov. 8.—If Satan has a stronghold on Bellevue, O., he had best look to his defenses for the Stevens evangelistic company has opened an engagement there. The company ended a whirlwind campaign there and after a brief rest in its headquarters at Warsaw opened in Bellevue yesterday.

The record here was 1958 conversions and $1,939.30 cash receipts. In all $2,500 was pledged the party. The conversions cost Elwood slightly under $1 apiece, cash.

Probably the most spectacular conversion was that of Chief-of-Police Parsons. The police chief left Sunday for Richmond to attend the state meeting of Charities and Correction there. That was the last day of the revival here. Harry James a member of the Stevens evangelistic company, left for Bellevue on the same train. That night the Rev. Mr. Stevens was on the platform when he received a telegram which read:

"Chief of police Parson converted on train this afternoon."

Stevens read the telegram to the audience and it was greeted with applause that lasted several minutes.

versal society may have in the unity of common prayer a common bond of devotion to God, and his Saints.

"Our objector must not forget, however, that besides vocal prayer there exists in the Catholic church the higher forms of mental and contemplative prayer, in which great saints, like St. Paul, St. Teresa, St. Catherine, excelled. We recommend to his careful study some of our elementary books on Christian Perfection, which will open a new field of vision into the spiritual life of Catholics. (Cf. Baker's Holy Wisdom, Lallemand's 'Spiritual Doctrine,' Hilton's 'Scale of Perfection,' St. Teresa's 'Autobiography,' a Kempis' 'Following of Christ' the Works of St. John of the Cross etc.)

"Is not a broken and a contrite heart a better offering to God, than a thousand repetitions of prayer?"

"Why will not the Catholic church allow divorce?" asked Father Conway in his lecture Saturday night.

"Is it not cruel to force a woman to live until the end with a drunkard or an adulterer?"

"Did not Christ expressly permit divorce in case of adultery?"

Father Conway answered these questions put to himself by the assertion that absolute prohibition of divorce from the marriage bond, with the right to marry another, rests on the express words of Jesus Christ and His Apostle St. Paul as follows: "What therefore God hath pointed together, let not man put asunder. . . . And he saith unto them: Whosoever shall put away his wife and marry another, committeth adultery against her." "And if the wife shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committed adultery." (Mark 10: 9-12.)

God knows them beforehand?

"The object of prayer is not to inform God of our necessities - of our inmost sentiments of love, praise, sorrow, or thanksgiving for He, the omniscient One, knows all the secrets of our hearts.

"The Christian prays, however, to fulfil a duty written in the heart of man, and insisted on constantly by the Son of God. The elemental principle of religion is the acknowledgement of God as our Creator, Lord and Final Destiny and our utter dependence upon him. The revelation of Jesus Christ unfolding to us so many new proofs of that Creator's love, makes this acknowledgement the more imperative.

"The Son of God teaches us how to praise, bless, adore, thank, and crave pardon of God, and promises us favors through the invocation of His Holy Name; "If you ask the Father anything in my name He will give it to you" (John. xvi. 23.)

"Why do not Catholics pray as the heart dictates instead of always repeating a certain number of set prayers?"

"Because Our Lord taught us the beauty and efficacy of special prayers in that most perfect of all prayers, The Our Father (Luke xi. 1-4) The Catholic church, teaching in His name, and with His Divine authority, has followed His example in sanctioning many other beautiful prayers, as the Hail Mary, the Creed, the Confiteor, the Prayers of the Mass, the Angelus, the Rosary, etc. in order that the members of a uni-

poor backslider. These men and women who have become discouraged and who need a brother's love to win them back and cheer them on. A man sometimes feels God-forsaken which he is not, and man-forsaken, which he is. Save a man! I heard a great lecturer trying to describe how great a man is. He said he stood beside Mt. Blanc and thought how long the majestic mountain had stood while generations of men had come and gone and yet the earth should melt with fervent heat and man should live. God will fold up the firmament as you fold up a worn-out garment and still man shall live. We do not know how great a man is or what influences are started heavenward when he is saved. He cited Jerry McAnlay, the president of a large industry as in-

"Not in the slightest. The intelligent Christian who prays earnestly for the cure of a sick friend does not neglect to employ a good physician also. The good priest who prays hard for the conversion of sinners does not neglect the personal visit and the word of advice, warning, encouragement or threat. He knows that God wishes us to use every natural means at our disposal, but he knows also that God has given the supernatural gift of prayer. And so every nation has 'prayed, even though its religion or philosophy gave the lie thereto; so deeply rooted in the human heart is the belief in a supernatural help vouchsafed man for the asking."

"Our objector has in mind, undoubtedly, the superstitious fanaticism of the Dowdites for example, who, contrary to Christian principles, neglect the use of remedies in curing diseases; or perhaps the Christian Scientist, who speak of prayer, although their denial of a personal God makes the term a mockery.
